

Is the Book of Mormon a Fraud?

After discovery about the Seventh-Day Adventists beliefs, I, Bro. Pouliot continue exploring for more truth. Not long before I have decided to not look for any domination church who might have a match of beliefs, I believe in. Since technology during that day were gaining much better using the computer and on an android device to search for information online, I was able to do more biblical research. I was also able to social connect with people who have different beliefs. I personally cannot remember long ago how I ended up meeting someone who is from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints church (LDS). We somehow did discuss biblical subject, whether we were discussing the topic online or in person. I also remember I was invited to visit the LDS church one time and learned a great deal about their beliefs. FYI, before I have met anyone who is a member of Latter-day Saints church (LDS), people also called them Mormon, I have heard of that named before but do not know anything about their beliefs.

After the first LDS member I have met, I met several more LDS member in later year as well. After discussing biblical topic number of time with any LDS members, I noticed how often these guys can be so pushing to suggest me to read their book called Mormon. This book of Mormon is an added book of another kind of Bible. They have also often ignored about my argument discussion why I find problem about their doctrine beliefs. They often refused to answer my questions why I have found number of conflict between what the Bible teaches VS. the book of Mormon's doctrine. This is where and what I am going to share with you about my finding. Share with you what kind of fundamental beliefs they believe in. Why am I against about their beliefs. I have been avoiding the LDS believers after these day.

Earlier, I did mentioned about I have heard the LDS named, but I have never heard of the book of Mormon. After LDS told me about the Mormon, I told them that the Book of Mormon cannot be an added book after the last Revelation book etc... They convinced me a reason why the Book of Mormon came into exist. After explaining to me about this man named Joseph Smith, a man who claimed found this gold written solid book in the mid early 19th century. They also told me that this written golden book was long before the Holy Bible. Telling me that this golden book exist first in South America before it was buried. Yet, I still had this doubt against them about an added book etc... I told one of them that I would be willing to do some homework by reading this Mormon book and see what I can say about this book. To exam this book whether there was a good reason why this golden book came into existing. After reading this book of Mormon, it turns out that this book is a fraud.

When I was handed to do the first homework assignments from LDS member, I was asked to read one of the LDS' guidebook page 181(Mormon); to read Mosiah chapter 18:8-11 and compare the relationship with James 1:26-27.

Homework: Mosiah chapter 18, verses 8-11.

And it came to pass that he said unto them: Behold, here are the waters of Mormon (for thus were they called) and now, as ye are desirous to come into the fold of God, and to be called his people, and are willing to bear one another's burdens, that they may be light; 9 Yea, and are willing to mourn with those that mourn; yea, and comfort those that stand in need of comfort, and to stand as witnesses of God at all times and in all things, and in all places that ye may be in, even until death, that ye may be redeemed of God, and be numbered with those of the first resurrection, that ye may have eternal life— 10 Now I say unto you, if this be the desire of your hearts, what have you against being baptized in the name of the Lord, as a witness before him that ye have entered into a covenant with him, that ye will serve him and keep his commandments, that he may pour out his Spirit more abundantly upon you? 11 And now when the people had heard these words, they clapped their hands for joy, and exclaimed: This is the desire of our hearts.

After reading Mosiah chapter 18:8-11 in the book of Mormon, it turns out that there is nothing to compare with James 1:26-27 at all. There was no connection between about these two book, at that moment while I was thinking why I was given this homework assignment. I was thinking maybe they mistaken gave me the wrong assignments somehow. Anyway, when I first read the book of Mormon for the very first time, I find it very strange. Strange about how this book of Mormon was written. It seems like it was copycat. Because the way it was written was exactly like how some of the Bible's statement made. I decide to focus and exam on any statement that are conflict with the Bible. The first thing I have discovered to learned about is about a man name Alma and his people whom all were fleeing from the king Noah to the wilderness. This book claimed that they were living in South America during 147–145 B.C before these people move to upstate New York in the future. When I have learned about this, I was thinking like “WHAT”? UH?? Like history I have never heard of and why wasn't there any history book written about this???

After learning about Alma and his people, I then also learned to discovered that they came from the Lehi's and Nephi's tribes. Who they left from Jerusalem, before crossing the sea to the "promised land" (Americas) which the sub-line of this chapter 18:

Alma preaches in private — He sets forth the covenant of baptism and baptizes at the waters of Mormon — He organizes the Church of Christ and ordains priests—They support themselves and teach the people—Alma and his people flee from King Noah into the wilderness. About 147–145 B.C.

I was still snippy about this story, because it a whole lot new to me and none of this ever mention in the Bible as well. I then decided to find out what is this Waters of Mormon mentioned in the book of Mormon. I found out where this located, it's located where Lake Erie of the great lake is. I dig in more information about this Waters of Mormon and found some information very strange. After I did all that, complete my first homework assignment, I met the LDS guys again. When I told them about where the Waters of Mormon is, I was surprised they never heard this Water of Moron and the locate after I told them about it. That was my first doubt on them, because I except them to know about their own beliefs. Like how could they not know about this? I realized they weren't in for Mormon beliefs long enough, before they were label tag as elder. These fella I met were in their 20s.

The next thing I have discovered a problem about their Mormon book, it about the timeline history. The event of the timeline does not make any sense at all. First easy example is, there is no historical of any books tell us about King Noah at all. No such thing... FYI, this King Noah is not the same name Noah from the Genesis book. According to what the book of Mormon says about this great battle which two million men were slain to death happened very long time ago in upstate New York. Would you find this information from the book of Mormon very strange? Of course, it is strange because there is no such historical facts about this or King Noah's name in ancient before America was name. I did some research about this located, to see if we ever found millions of death man of bones, swords or armor bury there. While I was digging more about this located, it turns out located in Hill Cumorah in Manchester, New York. It turns out that there was no burial of millions of bones, swords, or armor there. So, this is where and how I can see why I can proof that this Mormon of the LDS teaching is false.

I have also learned about Jaredite nation, which this Jaredite nation is the Nephites and Lamanites who also battle at the same located site area during the 421 AD. It mentioned about 230,000 warriors who had steel weapons were killed over there too. This is another reason why LDS failed this also. Because all those anthropologists who did excavating these area located, they have found NO trace of any evidence. Nothing at Cumorah to establish these claims by LDS' Mormon book. There is NO written historical record history mentioned about this as well.

There is another fishier story about this Mormon book, like one about Lehi's and Nephi's family who left from Jerusalem and travel across the sea to America long before it was named. This is one of the timeline why I believe they (LDS) got all this wrong. Because this book of Mormon telling us that this Lehi's and Nephi's family were living in the time during prophet Daniel's day? The first reason why I knew this cannot be right, they were living during Babylonian time and the people during that time were facing war with Media and Persia. The book of Danial or any other books in the Old Testament do not mention anyone about their tribe at all. Most of all, many divided nations (kingdoms) haven't gone that far west to the future nation of America. Before the Greece took over and rule the world. Persia rule the world between the year 539 to 331 B.C. It hard to believe that the Nephites and Lamanites had left and travel all the way there that time. Going from Turkey, then out of Spain, then out of Egypt to Africa and then possible cross the sea nor going from Turkey, out of China and then Russia to the sea? Still, it puzzle too odd and does not fit the timeline.

Here another reason why it hard to believe, when a scientists who follow LDS and their claimed that the Native American were primarily the descended of Siberian peoples that crossed from the Bearing Sea land-ice bridge to the land from Russia to Alaska during the Ice Age or it was at first a landmass before it divvied. Historical evidence I have learned about the Native American's DNA, they are much closer to the family today are Turkey, Syria, Spain, India, and also black African people.

It still impossible, because most people know where most of the native had migrated from and that is why the Book of Mormon is sooo wrong.

Another interesting thing I have also learned is about James Churchward (February 27, 1851 – January 4, 1936) who he is best known as the British man who is occult writer who claimed when he was a soldier in India, he befriended a high-ranking temple priest who showed him a set of ancient "sunburnt" clay tablets, supposedly in a long lost "Naga-Maya language" which only two other people in India could read. I have learned that the Mayan people were the Indian people who migrated from India to south America before the lands were divide like I said before about how the Earth was once a single landmass (possible with less sea). Because our planet earth had been expanding it land time to time by dividing it lands. Chuchward believe there was a land in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean.

This famous story about the loss city in the Atlantic Ocean, people believe there was a mysterious unknown ancient underwater ruins land in Atlantic Ocean 800 miles west of Morocco. What is it? It must be the last remains ancient lost civilization land once stood. Or just giant scratches on the seabed, who know? The lines on the ground have right angles and there is another similar structure 150 miles away?? (There a video to see about this part at: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=W0ZZr5nZtVo> )

If we look up more about this lost city throughout the timeline, like what happen to the city of Troy that was once itself stood on a hill, across the plain of Scamander, where the battles of the Trojan War took place. This is where now in the Turkey country. If we understand better and correctly the history, we will know different kingdoms that had taken place at the time until now. So far, this is how I understand where the Native America may mostly come from. This so-called Lehi's and Nephi's tribe and the LDS scientists' believers are false scientists. So far, this book of Mormon is full of mysterious with false information.

There are few more interesting facts I have learned from the Mormon book, LDS claimed they had a cow, ox, ass, horse, goat and even a seed of wheat in the time they were living in America during B.C. time (according to 1st Nephi 18:25 and Mosiah 9:9). That is another lied here why, there is NO tread of history or evidence that America had a wheat or horse during the year before 1677 A.C. The reason is, horse did not first appear in the land south from America after that year. Native America never saw a horse until later time after that year as well.

Another thing I have discover to learned, between KJV Bible and the book of Mormon, numerous of verbatim in King James Version passages in the Book of Mormon; a book purportedly which written by A.D. 421 whereas differs from the King James Version which was written in the 17th century document. Strange right??? YEAP, that is because Joseph Smith is a scam, he does not know that. He made up the Mormon book. Most of all, there is a quotes in the Book of Mormon "Do not incorporate the changes made in the Joseph Smith Translation of the Bible". Yet, it apparently that Smith did too? All of this information I have share so far, this is the reason why I have examined Joseph Smith's claimed had to be false. Because of this so-called golden plates, how he also claimed GOD has COMMANDED him to TRANSLATE this gold plates INTO OUR MODERN-DAY (new added restore) BIBLE.

The most odd, strange, and logical thing I have also learned from the book of Mormon, according to Nephi Plates, it said that this gold plates went to heaven after he complete the translated copy. WHAT???? UH??? How can this be, this does not sound logic at all. Existence on earth first before it went back to heaven. Did the Ark of the Covenant go to heaven too? No, so why did this golden plates had to go to heaven? Most of all, how the hack was Joseph Smith able to carries this golden plates home all by himself? This golden plates must of could weighed about 230 lbs. with a density of 19.3 weighs 1204.7 lbs. per cubic foot. Mormon said this plates is 7" x 8" by about 6". That is way too heavy for one man to carry it (Articles of Faith said, by Talmage, page 262, 34th Ed).

The last reason why I know the book of Mormon is a scam. Many people do not realize how bad is this KJV bible. KJV have many error and it change over time as well. That book should of have been retore before this JST Bible or the Book of Mormon. That why I know their JST and the Mormon book is a copycat. The bottom-line here is, Smith should of NOT change or add any of YAH's word.
