

Moral Discipline

Most people in this modern-day world do not morality understanding the moral life enough, because of the sin we have inside of us. And were we being well disciplined by our parents? Teaching a child how to take care of himself or herself and control themselves? To know how to live or survive in an uneasy world. How to deal with evil people. This basic understanding is how to live in a world full of good and evil. How could we control and get along with the kind of life we are facing in this world that isn't perfect as good alone?

We know there is a set of rules, a principle understanding of moral life which we are obligated to live circling in a good life that surpasses the opposite immorality flat dead end wrong. There is a set of rules to discipline people on how to be a moral human being. To care for himself or herself and other human beings in a way to show love and compassion to one another. When a child is born into an unknown world full of wonder and curiosity, this is the best time to discipline a child morally. To know the majority lesson of Respect, Courtesy, Consideration, Decency, Propriety, Honesty, and being a Righteousness example. This is the principal knowledge of moral values for people to live good, right, healthily, and happily. A lesson to discipline a person to be able to develop on his or her own and be able to be mature enough to have self-discipline and self-control on their own. This way, society will be able to treat, work and do one another well and respectfully.

ONCE AGAIN, THE BEST TIME TO DISCIPLINE-TEACH THE MORAL VALUE IS IN THE EARLY STAGE. JUST AS IT EASIER TO TEACH AN YOUNG DOG THAN AN OLDER DOG TO DO THE TRICK OR BEHAVE. THIS IS WHY WE MUST DISCIPLINE AND RISE THE CHILDREN TO BE A RIGHTEOUSNESS MAN OR WOMAN. WOULD YOU AGREE OR DENY ALL THOSE MORAL VALUE DISCIPLINES EXAMPLE?

- A. Teach a child to love and respect.
- B. Teach a child not to be angry or violent.
- C. Teach a child to have decency and compassion for one another.
  - 1. Being Kind, Generous, and Gratitude to Others
- D. Teach a child what is right against wrong such as:
  - 1. Not to lie and be honest.
  - 2. Do not cheat or steal.
  - 3. Do no harm or kill a human being.
- E. Teach a child to honor the elder and teacher.
- F. Teach a child to be consideration one another.
- G. Teach a child to have courtesy (polite, gesture)
- H. Teach a child the important role of responsibility.
- I. Teach a child to be self-control and not to be tempted.
- J. Teach a child how to be patient and manage time.
- K. Teach a child how to stay clean and pure against unclean or illness.
- L. When a child is older enough to understand about marriage couple, teach him or her not to have affair with another person whom he or she already marriage to.

If you agree with all the moral value disciplines example above, you then therefore cannot deny this principal of the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20 2-17 & Deuteronomy 5:6-21). Because all of this principle is also the moral values lesson to teach the child to become a rightness example. In order lives well with others and have a peaceful life.

Many people in our modern-day world do not know or realize where this moral values discipline came from in the first place. This doctrine of the moral values came from 3934 teaching.

The TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. You shall have no other gods (Creator Almighty) before Me.	Teach a child that there is only one headmaster of the household. Wherever at home or at work.
2. You shall not make idols.	Teach a child not to have people worship his or her selves or to any such idol objects nor any grave image that isn't real. To make an idol to honor him or her selves or to any person that isn't greater like our Creator Father nor a things that are useless to us as nothing. All for awe and pride in his or her selves nor how any things that may have inspired us is still useless to us.
3. You shall not take the name of the Master your Sovereign Almighty ONE in vain.	Teach a child not to speak in vain (calling the wrong name) or swear by a name inappropriately.
4. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.	Teach a child to obey the household rules, whether it is a day to work or a day to rest by the master's rule.
5. Honor your father and your mother.	Teach a child to always honor and respect the parents, elders, and/or teachers. Because they are the head leader of the young.
6. You shall not murder.	Teach a child to do NO harm or kill (and even being angry). Hurting or taking someone life is a no no.
7. You shall not commit adultery.	Teach a child that there is only one marriage couple. One family household roof. Cannot have affair.
8. You shall not steal.	Teach a child not to cheat or steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.	Teach a child not to lie. Must be honest.
10. You shall not covet.	Teach a child to be self-control against temptation and lust.

Let's us do this in honoring of 3934, our Father who LOVE us to do what is RIGHTNESS.
