

Moral Discipline

Not many people around the world have a full understanding of MORAL Life, because we all have sin that immorality can confuse us. How the bad nature of sin get inside of our mind and hearth since were are born with it. While growing up, it is always a good idea to discipline a child. Parents must discipline a child to be right, good and stay positive always. Teach a child how to respect, take care of him or her-self and self-control. To know how to live or survive in a world full of mixture of light and dark and how to deal with people as well. Most people rather live by the moral way of life, because the immorally way is a evil-bad leading situation where people rather not taste tha bad, don't want to suffer, hurt, live in the darkness side or die.

There is a depth moral principal to understanding how to get in the obligation circle of good life. There is a set of rule to discipline a person how to be a moral human being. To have the ability to love, care, kind, to have the compassion to another, help, stay clean, and to respect. When a child is born into the unknow world full of wonder and curious, this is the best time to discipline teach a child the moral way. To know the majority lesson of Love, Respect, Courtesy, Consideration, Decency, Propriety, Honesty, and example to be Righteousness. This is the principal knowledge of moral value for people to live in good life, to be and do right, stay healthy and clean, and happy. A lesson to disciplines a person to be able develops on his or her own and be able to be mature enough to self-discipline and self-control on their own. This way, the society of people will be able treat, work and do well one another good and respectfully.

Once again, the best time to discipline-teach the moral value lesson in age is the early stage. Just as it too late to train an old dog a trick or the proper behavior. This is why we must discipline and rise a child to be righteousness example of mature man or woman.

Would you agree with all this example of moral value lesson?

A. Teach a child to love and respect.
B. Teach a child not to be angry or violence
C. Teach a child to have decency and compassionate to other. 1. Being Kind, Generous, and Gratitude to others
D. Teach a child what is right against wrong such as: 1. Not to lie and be honest. 2. Do not cheat or steal. 3. Do no harm or kill a human being.
E. Teach a child to honor the elder and teacher. They are the head of you.
F. Teach a child to be consideration one another
G. Teach a child to have courtesy (polite, gesture) and be humble and kind.
H. Teach a child how importation is to have the responsibility role. Don't be lazy.
I. Teach a child to be self-control and avoid temptation.
J. Teach a child how to be patient and manage time.
K. When a child is older enough to completely understand about marriage couple, teach him or her not to have an affair with another person.

The next thing to notice what is very similar to the moral values lesson. It is the doctrine of Torch or the Ten Commandments. These principal commandments law was created by our heavenly Sovereign ONE (Exodus 20 2-17 & Deuteronomy 5:6-21).

1. You shall have no other Sovereign ONE before Me.	Teach a child that there is only one head of the household (Boss/Master) wherever you live and work.
2. You shall not make idols.	Teach a child not to worship such an object or an image that isn't real. Whether making an image or idol to honor yourself or to someone else who act like super being or the maker of people nor the salvation one. Taking all the pride for itself like almighty or the most importation person of the world. Whether it a person or a thing to look up upon to. Don't be stupid or take pride for it.
3. You shall not take the name of the Master your Sovereign ONE in vain.	Teach a child not to speak in vain (calling wrong name) or swear a name inappropriate.
4. Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it sanctify.	Teach a child to obey the household rule, whether it is a day to work or a day to rest by the master's house or business rule.
5. Honor your father and your mother.	Teach a child to always honor and respect a parents, elders, and teachers. Because they are ahead of the child.
6. You shall not murder.	Teach a child to do NO harm or KILL (even not to be badly angry). Hurting or taking life is no no.
7. You shall not commit adultery.	Teach a child that there is only one marriage couple. One family roof. Cannot have affair.
8. You shall not steal.	Teach a child not to cheat or steal.
9. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.	Teach a child not to lie but to be honest.
10. You shall not covet.	Teach a child to be self-control against temptation and lust.

Now, the arising question here is... would you also agree with these doctrine of Ten Commandments? If not, it is also that you would NOT agree with the value of MORAL LIFE discipline as well.
